Commentary

The Fund posted a positive performance in April outperforming the benchmark by over 200bps thanks to the strong gains of some of the top holdings. The main positive contributors to the Fund performance were Esprinet, Fiat Chrysler Automobiles, Unicredit, Fila and Mondadori. Esprinet rebounded from the 6-year low reached in March as the company released FY 2018 results in line with the preliminary data and gave a confident message for 2019 outlook. FCA rose on the back of renewed M&A rumors in the sector and the confirmation of the FY 2019 guidance following weak Q1 2019 results. Eni was the sole significant detractor to the Fund performance during the month, as the stock was penalized by a decline in oil price and Q1 results which came out below expectations, while Cairo and Leonardo posted muted performances. During the month the main trades executed had been the sales of Aeffe, Saes Getters, Elica, Assicurazioni Generali and Eni, and the purchases of Pirelli and Esprinet.
