Commentary

The Fund posted a negative performance in May, underperforming the benchmark by over 200bps despite the lower equity weighting of the portfolio mainly because of the double digit declines registered by some of the main holdings. The main positive contributors to the Fund performance had been Fluidra, Centrotec Sustainable and Aperam. Fluidra gained as the company commented about a strong trading in Q2 after a weak Q1 fully confirming the 2019 guidance. Centrotec gained as it posted increased revenues and Ebit in Q1 2019 and fully confirmed its 2019 guidance. The main detractors to the Fund performance during the month had been Esprinet, Trigano, Imi Plc, Acerinox and Trelleborg. Esprinet declined by -17% despite posting in-line Q1 2019 results and releasing positive comments on current trading. Trigano lost -21% as investors worried about a slowdown in the RV (Recreational Vehicle) cycle in Europe and sell-side analyst trimmed 2019 earnings expectations after H1 results. Industrial groups Imi Plc and Trelleborg posted double-digit declines as the stocks were penalized by weakening manufacturing indicators (PMI) across Europe. During the month the main trades executed had been the sale of Saes Getters, and the purchases of Andritz, Trelleborg, Hunting Plc, Aperam, La Doria and Pirelli.
