Commentary

The Fund posted a negative performance in May underperforming the benchmark mainly because of the double digit declines registered by some of the main holdings. The sole positive contributors to the Fund performance had been Massimo Zanetti Beverage Group and Autogrill, which both benefitted from the defensive features of their business and the little influence of trade tensions on their activities. Autogrill benefitted also from the positive expectations regarding the upcoming Capital Market Day in June. The main detractors to the Fund performance during the month had been Esprinet, Unicredit, CNH Industrial, Mondadori and Cementir. Esprinet declined by -17% despite posting in-line Q1 2019 results and releasing positive comments on current trading. Unicredit lost -18% as the European banking sector posted a double-digit decline being the second worst performing sector in Europe after Auto&Parts. CNH Industrial lost -19% on the back of the uncertainties related to the trade tension between US and China which may impact the AG business. During the month the main trades executed had been the sales of Generali, Aeffe, Saes Getters, Danieli ordinary shares and Buzzi Unicem savings shares, and the purchases of Pirelli, Danieli savings shares and Buzzi Unicem ordinary shares.
