

Key Investor Information

This document provides you with the key investor information about this Fund. It is not marketing material. The information is required by law to help you understand the nature and the risks of investing in this Fund. You are advised to read it so you can make an informed decision about whether to invest.

Albemarle Target Italy Fund (the "Fund") a sub-fund of the
ALBEMARLE FUNDS PLC (the "Company") Class A Shares – ISIN: IE00B1V6R242

Objectives and Investment Policy

The investment objective of the Fund is to achieve long term capital appreciation. The Fund will invest at least 70% of its net asset value ("NAV") in assets in common stocks issued by companies which are resident in Italy, or in an EU or EEA Member State and have a permanent establishment in Italy. These companies shall not be limited to any one particular sector.

At least 21% of the Fund's NAV (corresponding to at least 30% of investment in common stocks referred to above), shall be issued by companies which are not listed on the Italian benchmark stock market index (the "FTSE MIB Index"), or in any other equivalent indices of other regulated markets, but will be listed on a regulated market. The Fund shall not invest more than 10% of its NAV in financial instruments (including bank deposits or deposit certificates) issued by, or entered into with the same company, or companies belonging to the same group.

In addition, the Fund will not invest in financial instruments issued by companies' resident in countries that do not allow for an adequate exchange of information with Italy.

Essential features of the product which a typical investor should know:

- Shares in the Fund may be redeemed on demand, subject to certain restrictions, on each Dealing Day.
- The Fund may use financial derivative instruments such as futures (including futures that are traded on Italian exchanges such as the FTSE MIB Index future), forwards, foreign exchange contracts (including spot and forward contracts) and options for hedging purposes only.
- The Company will reinvest any income that it earns from its investments.

Other Information:

- The Fund may be leveraged as a result of its use of financial derivative instruments, but such leverage will not exceed 100% of NAV at any time.
- Investment in the Fund is suitable for investors who expect to maintain their investment over the medium to long term horizon.
- Futures (including financial future contracts and FTSE MIB Index futures) may be used for hedging purposes. Forward contracts may be used to hedge an increase in the value of assets similar to these describe in investment policies section. Options may be used to hedge a particular market instead of using a physical security. Forward contracts may be used to hedge against an increase or decrease in the value of a particular currency, for example, in situations where the Fund has invested in non-Euro denominated financial instruments and seeks to hedge against this currency exposure.
- The Fund is actively managed in reference to the BCI Comit Globale Index (the "Benchmark") as its performance is compared to the Benchmark in marketing and the Fund's performance is measured against the Benchmark for the purposes of calculating the performance fee as set out below under the heading "Performance Fees". The Investment Manager may use its discretion to invest in companies or sectors not included in the Benchmark in order to take advantage of specific investment opportunities.

For more information about the investment policy, see "Investment Objectives and Policies" in the Fund's supplement.

Risk and Reward Profile

1	2	3	4	5	6	7
---	---	---	---	---	---	---

The Fund is categorised as 6 for the purposes of this table. This offers a potential of higher risk than a low risk fund however, with greater long term returns although there is a risk that the value of the fund could fall. It has been so categorised as due to the high volatility of the underlying securities and its benchmark fund.

- Historical data may not be a reliable indication for the future
- The lowest category does not mean 'risk free'.
- Risk category shown is not guaranteed and may shift over time

Investment in the Fund carries with it a degree of risk (which may change over time) which may not adequately be captured by the indicator:

- Market risk, changes in economic conditions can affect adversely the prospects of the Fund
- Operating risks and the risks relating to the safekeeping of assets
- Custodial risks including safe keeping of assets
- FDI use may increase or reduce the risks to underlying assets

Further details of risks associated with an investment in the Fund are set out in the "Risk Warnings" Section of the Fund's Prospectus and the "Investment Risks" Section of the Fund's Supplement
