Commentary

The Fund posted flattish performance in June. The main positive contributors to the Fund performance had been Esprinet, Pirelli, Mersen, Corticeira Amorim and Aubay. Esprinet rose as the reference market continued to develop strongly in May, and it appears that the company could increase again the guidance at the time of the announcement of Q2 results. Amorim rose as the reopening of the Horeca channel should support the sales growth of the cork stoppers division. Aubay rose as the company is benefitting from a favourable environment thanks to the strong demand for enterprise digitalization projects. The main detractors to the Fund performance during the month had been Nacon, Hunting Plc, Synergie, Altri and Fila. Nacon strongly outperformed as FY 2020/2021 reported earnings fell below estimates, while the FY 2021/2022 guidance announced fell in line with market expectations with no upgrades. Altri declined as investors feared pulp prices could be peaking at the moment and then decline in the latter part of the year due to new supply coming on stream. During the month the main trades executed had been the sale of Rai Way, Rubis, Danieli, Jacquet Metals and Carraro, and the purchase of Plastic Omnium, Altri, Acerinox, Aubay, Verallia and Nacon.
